

Community Water Supply Systems 2018

Data adapted from the Minnesota Department of Health Drinking Water Protection Program. These data are limited to active community water systems in Minnesota, which are public water systems that serve 15 or more locations or 25 or more people year-round in Minnesota. Water systems are not mapped to their actual locations, but within a vicinity of their locations for security concerns.